

Contents

Márta Bodó: Paupercula Feminea Forma . A Simple Woman of the Middle Ages and her Musical Visions	1
László Holler: What is the Meaning of the Word ualallal as it Appears in the Old Hungarian Lament of the Virgin Mary?	11
Csaba Maczelka: Dialogue, Paratext, Polyphony – Points of View for the Interpretation of Thomas More’s Work	51
Gyula Dávid: Bánffy and Kós	62

Workshop

Adél Csata: The Language Policy of László Teleki (1764–1821) by his Work Entitled A’ magyar nyelv elé mozdításáról buzgó esdeklései gróf Teleki Lászlónak	76
Attila István Kárpáti: „Our Readers Wish Delightful...” Miklós Wesselényi and the Transylvanian Museum	91
Éva Szegedi: The Catalog (Registry) of Count Imre Mikó’s Personal Library	103
Eszter Benő: Literature in the Tower of Babel	112

Review

Levente Pap: Geodesy in Ancient Rome	118
Éva Szegedi: Roman Library and Catalog	119
Máté Boér: Textology, Philology, Interpretation	121
Zselyke András: Our Living Space, Our Language	125
Annamária Biró: Exploring Transylvania	128
Franciska Kónya: Seraphic Adventures	132
Vera Tünde Vulkán: About Mártonfi József, a Transylvanian Bishop	133
Csilla T. Szabó: Carpathian Basin Family Name-Atlas	135