

Contents

Dóra Andrea Czégényi: The Folk Belief „without Shadow”. The Conceptual History of Superstition	1
György Takács: „Great Saint Mary Set a Big Table...”	46
Enikő Balássy: The Spiritist in Popular Beliefs in Székelyhodos (Hodoşa)	85
Lajos Balázs: A Different Approach to the Wedding Pretzel, or the Bride’s Change of Sexual Identity in Csíkszentdomokos (Sândominic)	101
Szilárd Salló: The Existing Means of a Sheep Ranch in Csikmadaras (Mădăraş, Harghita County)	118

Workshop

Tekla Tötszegi: The Possibility of Analysing the Inscriptions on Objects within Ethnographic Research – The Example of Furniture from Torockó (Rimetea, Alba County)	141
András Vajda: The Work of a Local Historian in Sáromberke (Dumbrăvioara): History about us (case study)	150
Erika Vass: The Calvinist Hungarians Living in the Zsil (Jiul) Valley	161
Veronika Lajos: Applied Anthropology among the Moldavian Csángós? Attempt to Re-interpret the Relation between Theory and Practice	176

In memoriam

Berezcki Ibolya: Dr. László Keszi-Kovács (1908–2012)	194
------------------------------------------------------------	-----

Review

Erika Vida Tekei: New Points of View in the Ballad-Searching.....	196
Imola V. György: The Star-Cult as the Postmodern Form of Consciousness and Behaviour’s Example	200
Árpád-István Bajkó: Mors certa, hora incerta	206
Renáta Bilibók: „ Is He Still Living? If He not Died. ” Detrehemtelep’s Narratives	212
Dóra Andrea Czégényi: From Micofilia to Etnomicology.....	215
István Kinda: Disappeared and Increasing Minorities in Transsylvania	219
Zsolt Nagy: Publications of the Csángó Ethnographic Museum from Zabola	222
Lajos Balázs: Plants in the Moldavian Hungarians’ Traditions	230
Zselyke András: Saluting the Memory of Loránd Benkő	232