

Contents

Levente Papp: Purpose and Function in the Philosophy of Biology	1
Attila Kovács: One of the Lessons of Totalitarianism. Reflections upon the Dominance of Technology and Production in the Postmodern Age.....	14
Vince Mag: Spatial Modes of the State Borders Depending on the Cross-border Co-operations and Characteristics of the Geometrical Space	36
Gizella Horváth: Dada Dead and Loving It	47
Csanád Száva: Dimensions of the Invisible.....	60
Károly Veress: Reality-Constructing Virtuality	69

Workshop

Alpár P. Gergely: Herbert Paul Grice on Meaning	82
András Áron Ivácson: The Registers of Our Voluntary Hardships.....	93
Adél Máté: A Human's Political and/or Individual Freedom	100
Éva Incze: Hermeneutical Concept of the Building	108

Review

Ezsébet Kerekes: The Possibility of the Authentic Forgiveness	116
Péter Tánczos: Justified Absence	122
Dávid Horváth: Words Among Times.....	124
Zsolt Lázár: The Retrieving of the Ontologic Denseness	126
Zalán-Tamás Jakab: Two Traditions, Two Notions.....	129
János Tóth I.: Bioethics and Biopolitical Studies	131
Adél Máté: Institution, Revolt, Ethos	136
Renáta Bilibók: The Rhythm of Repeating: What, How, Why?	138
Gabriella Dénes: Remembrance of Zádor Tordai	141
Péter Molnár: Occasion for Professional Meeting	142
Csanád Száva: Political Circles' Illustration.....	145
Zoltán Ákos Plesek: The Medical Cure of Souls in the Philosophers' Pocket-Books.....	148