

Contents

Huba Csiki: Imagination and Fantasy.....	1
Pál Petki: Questioning, Denial and Nothing. Contribution to Sartre’s Interpretation of Nothing.....	8
Mihály Szilágyi-Gál: The Aesthetic Presence of the ”Other” in Hobbes’s Social Contract Theory.....	21
Vasile Prahovean: From the Tyranny of Majority to Soft Despotism.....	26
Lajos András Kiss: The Categories of “Political” and “Exceptional” in Claude Lefort’s Political Philosophy.....	32
Botond Bakcsi: Populism and the Paradox of Popular Sovereignty.....	45
János I. Tóth: The Two Forms of Diversity and Homogenization.....	55
Gizella Horváth: The Visual Creativity of Protests (Romania, 2016-2019).....	63
Dénes Tamás: Can Digital be Natural?.....	71
Adrienne Gálosi: Ut Pictura Poesis – Some Remarks on the History Leading to the Post-Medium Condition.....	79
Mónika Jáger-Péter: The Language of Pictures.....	97
Károly Veress: Is Hermeneutic Criticism Possible?.....	106

Workshop

Amália Soós: Augustine on the Unity of Being and Good.....	142
Erzsébet Kerekes: Hannah Arendt on the Concept of Love of Saint Augustine.....	153
Dávid Horváth: Belonging-Together and Beyond. Heideggerian Interpretations of 3rd Fragment of Parmenides.....	171
Erika Fám: Picture-networks.....	190
Alpár Gergely P.: The Limits of the Formal Treatment of Language.....	198

Reviews

András A. Gergely: Common Consciousness, Cult and Inheritance in Comprehension.....	207
Botond Bakcsi: Passages of Philosophy.....	221
András Áron Ivácson: Science after the Neoliberal Turn.....	223
Annamária Lázár: Five-Hundred Years of Histories.....	225
Szilárd-Zoltán Ilyés: Our Things in Common.....	227
Pál Petki: Metamorphoses and the Limits of the Self.....	232