

Contents

Levente Papp: The Content of Perception .....	1
Amália Soós: The Problem of External and Inner Speech in Augustine’s Philosophy.....	13
Péter Táncoz: Is There a Political A Priori? – A “Debate” between Immanuel Kant and Friedrich Schlegel on Revolution .....	23
Pál Petki: Modes of Situatedness in Being and Temporality. Interpretation of the Fundamental-Ontological Sense of the Temporality of Understanding, of Disposition, of Fall and of Discourse .....	34
János Loboczky: Gadamer and the Humanist Tradition .....	45
Dénes Tamás: Present Shock, instead of Future Shock .....	57
Cecília Hausmann: Disintegration and the Joy of Auto-Enclosure. Aspects of Familiarity and Strangeness in the Process of Endorsing and Exceeding the Postmodern State .....	66
Gizella Horváth: Salvator Mundi – The Saviour of the Artworld.....	77
Sándor Bartha: Self-Referentiality and Sensuality in the Hungarian Art of the Nineties.....	89
Lajos András Kiss: From the Impolitical to Biopolitics. Roberto Esposito on the Substance of Political Community .....	98

Workshop

Dániel Krivánik: Reflections on Mythical Consciousness.....	107
András Áron Ivácson: Profound Insight: the Concept of 玄学 in Daoist Epistemology .....	120
Márk Láng: Fichte and Kierkegaard on the Difference and the Identity of the I .....	131
Mónika Rancz: The Theatrical Reality of the “as if” .....	141

In memoriam

Farewell to Erzsébet Veress .....	151
-----------------------------------	-----

Review

Hajnalka-Renáta Oláh: From Concepts to Man – the Active Power of Language and Discourse in Processing the Past .....	154
János Péter: Micro- and Macro-Worlds in an Interdisciplinary Approach .....	156
Csilla Vincze: Foundations of a Meaningful Life .....	158
Botond Bakcsi: The Refugee Crisis in the Light of Biopolitics and Moral Philosophy.....	161
András A. Gergely: The Chances of Epistemology, or Misunderstanding, Understanding, Recontextualisation.....	163
Károly Veress: On the Philosophical Significance of the Idea of Mediality.....	169