

Contents

Zsigmond Jakó – 100

“The Truth Needs to Be Found and Told”– Árpád Kulcsár’s Interview with Zsigmond Jakó	1
Pál Fodor: A Few Words about Zsigmond Jakó and his Legacy – Salutatory	6
Géza Hegyi: Zsigmond Jakó and the Erdélyi okmánytár (Transylvanian Collection of Documents)	10
Mihály Balázs: Zsigmond Jakó and the Early Modern Enterprises in Szeged	18
Teréz Oborni: Zsigmond Jakó and the Research of Early Modern History	21
Judit Pál: Zsigmond Jakó as Research Coordinator	25
Gábor Sipos: The Transylvanian Museum Society and the Transylvanian Archives Matters	31
András Kovács: Zsigmond Jakó as Professor	35
Tamás Fejér: Expert-training in the Research Institute of the Transylvanian Museum Society	39
Mária Lupescu Makó: Zsigmond Jakó’s Researches in Settlement History and Ethnohistory	43
Veronka Dáné: Subjective Biography	53
Attila Zsoldos: Zsigmond Jakó: Writing, Archives, Society. Studies and Sources on the History of Transylvania	59

Study

Géza Hegyi: The Beginnings of Tithing among the Romanians Moved to “Terra Christianorum” in Transylvania	61
Emőke Gálfi: The Conflict between the Goldsmiths’ Guild of Cluj and that of Alba Iulia in the Late 16 th Century	76
Miklós Kázmér – Gábor Timár: Marcello Squarcialupi: De coeli ardore (1580)	82
Tamás Fejér: Some Remarks on Dating Documents in the Early Modern Transylvania	88
Kornél Nagy: Andrea Santacroce Apostolic Nuncio in Wien and the Transylvanian Armenian Church	102
Andrea Fehér: Weddings in the Székely Family. Contributions to the 18 th Century Wedding Customs in Transylvania	118
Ildikó Zsoldos: The Vécsey Family in Szatmár/Satu Mare	130
Dénes Lőrinczi: The Romanian Education Policy Following the First World War (1918-1938) in the History of the Székely Mikó Kollégium (Székely Mikó College)	142
Gabriella M. Lezsák: “That Place I’ve Become Reconciled to Myself and My Fate...” Gyula László’s Years in Kolozsvár (1940–1949), in Serving Science and His Homeland	168

Review

László László: On the Land of Wesselényies: on the Border of Transylvania and the Hungarian Plain	183
Andrea Fehér: Norm Breakings Closed in Texts	186
Aranka Markaly: The Writing that Eternalizes and Records	189
Antal-Pál Bakk: The Academic Correspondence of Sámuel Köleséri: 1709-1732	191
Antal-Pál Bakk: The Goldmining in Transylvania	195
Levente Tóth: Faith-Science-Public Life	197
Levente Olosz: The Cross-Section of the Jewishness of Kolozsvár/Cluj.....	200
Kálmán Zsolt Sütő: Selections from a Rich Life-Work.....	204
György Gaal: Life Dedicated to Education and Cultural History.....	205
Ágota Ladó: Arms and Muses.....	210

Society Communications

Enikő Bitay: Secretary-general's Report of the 2016. Year	213
---	-----