

Content

STUDIES

ZOLTÁN SZÉNÁSI: Deletions and Variants without Deletions 3

ANNAMÁRIA BIRÓ: Lajos Hatvany’s Images of Sándor Petőfi 14

FERENC VINCZE: The Challenge of Literary Translation:
Explicit Forms of Literary Multilingualism. 29

NÓRA MIKLÓS: Intertextuality and Feminist Rewriting:
Frankensteinian Echoes in Alasdair Gray’s Poor Things. 49

KATALIN SÁNDOR: Concepts of Home, Relationship Crisis and Female Perspective in Szabolcs Hajdu’s Chamber Film, Kálmán-nap. 63

TIMOTHY SÓS: The Metamodern Prairie: The Impact of New Trends
on the Genre of Contemporary Western Films 71

KINGA PAPP: Paratexts from the Prayer Diaries of Kata Wesselényi 84

RENÁTA BALÁZS: The Concept of National Literature in Cross-Border Secondary Education Textbooks. 97

WORKSHOP

ALEXANDRA BALOG: Identity Constructions in the Novels of Margit Kaffka and Renée Erdős 111

ENIKŐ M. BODROGI: Mission, Value Preservation and Honesty –
An interview with Bengt Pohjanen 125

LÁSZLÓ BÜKY: Title, Word, Text – The Word „Szekér” in Text Comprehension 135

REVIEWS

GYULA DÁVID: Notes on the Preliminaries and the First Ten Years of the Erdélyi Tudományos Füzetek-series 144

HANNA BALÁZS: French School. 150

ZSÓFIA BURKHARDT: Connections and Marketing Strategies 154

ZOLTÁN FERENCZ NAGY: The Big Red Book of Transylvaniam 158

ZSOLT FURUS: Without Censorship. Everyday Women in the World of Communist Dictatorship 162

NOÉMI GUDOR: In the Gaps of Classical Turn-of-the-Century Prose 166

ANITA APOLLÓNIA NAGY: “... We Should Count Him Among the Best Hungarian Literary Researchers of the 20th Century” 170

EMESE INGRID NAGY: Fictional Narratives. Bestsellers of Medieval and Early Modern Entertainment Literature 173

CONTENT

ANNAMÁRIA RAPA: On Faith, Homeland and Nation177

ÉVA VAJNA: Letters, People, Stories180

ZSÓFIA BURKHARDT: What Does Time Do?184

REPORTS OF THE SOCIETY

ENIKŐ BITAY: In the Company of Scientists. Scientific Afternoons at the Transylvanian Museum Society188